16 The United States, by the undersigned, respectfully moves the Court for an order
17 unsealing the Indictment in this case prior to the defendants' initial appearance and arraignment.
18 In support of this motion, the United States states as follows:

19 1. On October 26, 2011, the federal grand jury returned an eleven count
20 indictment against the defendant alleging drug distribution, money laundering and structuring
21 transactions to evade reporting requirements. The Court issued an arrest warrant for the defendant.
22 The Court also sealed the indictment upon motion of the United States.

23 2. On November 2, 2011, pursuant to the arrest warrant, case agents arrested
24 the defendant. The United States anticipates that he will make his initial appearances on the 25 charges in the indictment today (November 2, 2011).

26 ...

1           4. The United States respectfully submits that because the defendant has been
2 arrested, the need for sealing has disappeared. It seeks an Order from the Court unsealing the 3 indictment forthwith, in advance of the defendant's initial appearance.

5           Respectfully submitted,
